I Before recording my opinion I enquired why Ganesh Iyer was Revenue was suspended. I am now informed that this has already been confirmed on 14.3.04. A remark "on the proceedings against" shows wrongly in the Gradation list - refer to proceedings anterior to this confirmation. I recommend that a reference be made to Govt. Also no Revenue Inspectors in this Dio office to inspect - the confirmation for the withdrawal of Govt. This amended while Dewan Dio. Govt. Dio omission now reported must be noted for future guidance. My remarks as I & Revenue Secretary Govt. Dewan.

Submitted to His Highness.

XIII The confirmation of Police Inspectors Simon Reuben, V.S. Rajagopalachari and S.Srini-vasa Iyengar in their respective appointments may be sanctioned. Reuben was appointed to act in July 1902 as Gold Field Inspector for Mr. Ball, when the latter was appointed to act as Amildar. Similarly Rajagopalachar (now acting Amildar) was appointed in April 1903 to act as Head Quarter Inspector in place of Mr.Venketesia who was appointed acting Amildar. Both these Amildars having since been confirmed, the Inspectors acting for them may also be confirmed. The 3rd Inspector Srinivasa Iyengar has been acting in place of Mahomed Jaffer Mekri, coffee Inspector, and may also be confirmed.

Incidentally, in dealing with the above recommendations of the Inspector General, I found that there was no explanation for Ganesha Iyer who was senior to Srinivasa Iyengar being superceded and the enquiry made on the subject has elicited that not only Ganesha Iyer, but three others, viz, Kesevia, Ahobala Rao and P. Subba Rao were permanently appointed as Head Quarter Inspectors without sanction from Government. Mr. Madiah who made the appointments has stated that it is not possible for him now to say how the mistake occurred. These appointments also may be formally confirmed.
